We are pleased to offer our End of Grant Knowledge Translation (KT) Course on November 15th, 2016 (9am - 4pm) at the Li Ka Shing Knowledge Institute of St. Michael's Hospital in Toronto. This course is designed to provide grant writers with the needed tools to write the KT portion of their grant applications. Course attendees will use their own grants to develop an end of grant KT plan.

Speakers include:

- Kim Barnhardt, Communications and Partnerships Strategist, Canadian Medical Association Journal
- Nadia Bashir, PhD, Research Coordinator, Knowledge Translation Program, Li Ka Shing Knowledge Institute of St. Michael's Hospital
- Jessie McGowan, PhD, Adjunct professor, Department of Medicine, University of Ottawa; Associate Editor, Journal of Clinical Epidemiology

Topics covered:

- A framework for end of grant KT
- Assessing impact of research – how to use and interpret bibliometrics and altmetrics
- Approach to media and social media

Cancellation policy:

Refunds will not be issued for cancellations received after November 2, 2016. A processing fee of $60 will be retained on all cancellations. Requests for cancellation must be made in writing. Registrations are not transferable. KT Canada reserves the right to cancel events. Registrants will be notified at the earliest possible date in the event of a cancellation. Registration fees for events cancelled by KT Canada will be refunded; however KT Canada will not be liable for any loss, damages or other expenses that such cancellations may cause.
