

U of T IDCCM Visiting Professor Critical Care Physiology Rounds

Tuesday, September 12, 2017

4:45 p.m. – 5:45 p.m.

Mechanisms of Delirium and Cognitive Decline in Critical Illness

Timothy Girard, MD, MSCI

Associate Professor, Department of Critical Care Medicine, University of Pittsburgh

Objectives:

1. To describe the prevalence and characteristics of delirium and cognitive decline in critical illness.
2. To list the potential mechanisms leading to delirium and cognitive decline in critical illness.
3. To propose promising treatments for delirium and cognitive decline in critical illness.

Chair: Dr. John Granton

Time: 4:45 pm - 5:45 pm

New Host Site: Li Ka Shing Building, 209 Victoria Street, 2nd Floor, Room 211

Kindly RSVP here (refreshments available) or to Louisa, 416-864-5686 on or before Monday, September 11th.

Videoconference Sites: Windsor Regional Hospital, Cottam Room; Lakeridge Health Hospital, Critical Care Conf Room

Webcast: <http://webcast.otn.ca>

- Select Live Events / Private
- Username: CCPR / Password: rounds
- Webcast questions/comments: john.granton@uhn.ca

OTN Technical Support Team: 1-866-454-6861 (Event #: 62361116)